Interest in Building Fund

The Woman's club have decided their lots must be paid for in full. So again we say — 'twill be done! This week the home economics department executes an intensive drive to make up a neat sum as its share towards the fund. Perhaps never before has such enthusiasm held over for an entire week.

The ladies planned a series of small card parties to be held at the homes of the various members — these parties to be given by two hostesses for each afternoon and including perhaps some twelve players in each series. Well, Monday found the hostesses and united guests just "rarin" to go and so it has been each afternoon. Some of the ladies tell us they have been invited to several of the affairs but like it immensely for it attests their popularity. Mrs. Frank Harrison has been seeing the thing through for the week and feels well repaid by the enthusiasm and good spirit prevailing.

On Monday Mrs. Isham and Mrs. Osler started the series with a bridge which included the following guests: Mesdames R. E. Taylor, G. F. Manning, Sr., Joe Wilson, P. H. Nelson, DeRyder, Gassman, Sr., Rees, Herbert Hill, E. H. Wheat, Harry Embach, Noble, Harrison and Miss Lintz.

The refreshments for each affair are limited so that this part may not become a burden, but each afternoon delicious and dainty collations have been served.

Monday evening Mrs. R. G. Stevenson gave an informal little affair with Mrs. Hayes Weidner point hostess and the following guests: Miss Laura Paris, Mesdames E. H. Baker, John Pollard, DeRyder, Freidlein, John Francis, Joe Francis, Benedict, Mills, Hall and Tissaw.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Fred Lusk and Mrs. Joe Wilson entertained at the Lusk home. Here we found Mesdames Alex Johnston, Fronske, Manning, Sr., Manning, Jr., Cree, Roome, Grimmell, Burt Cameron, Keefe and Haight.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. A. J. Sullivan and Mrs. Joe Schmidt entertained Mesdames C. B. Wilson, Richmond, Hennessy, R. E. Taylor, Colin Campbell, John Francis, Manning, Sr., Manning, Jr., Doe, Jackson, Jakle and Hock.

Cupid's Darts

Last week we learned of the culmination of a post-war romance when Albert Smith and Miss Patricia Tummins were married in Phoenix.

Albert has always been considered a Flagstaff boy for he spent many years here before enlisting. While the 158th regiment had toured the state he met the present Mrs. Smith. The ceremony was a quiet one, Miss Beatrice Smith and Mr. Roy Richards attending. They have apartments at 703 East Adams street, Phoenix.

General Club

Saturday afternoon the club met in the Breen-Lewis hall for the January program. After the business meeting Mrs. L. B. McMullen, as chairman of the civics department, announced the program — a solo by Jack Fuss, heartily encored; a reading by Miss Julian, equally well received, and a piano solo by Miss Wilkie who also responded to an encore. Mrs. McMullen then introduced Miss Elsie Toles, state superintendent of schools, who spoke of the school situation in the state, which is in rather critical condition, and urged leniency and patience on the part of those interested that the best may be secured for our schools. An informal reception was held afterward.

Music Department

Tomorrow afternoon the music department will hold its January meeting at the home of Mrs. R. G. Stevenson. Russian music will be discussed.

Complimentary Dinner

The attractive McMullen home was the scene of a very pretty dinner Saturday night when Mr. and Mrs. McMullen were hosts in compliment to Miss Elsie Toles.

On the clever place cards were depicted the duties the guests were to assume during the eating.

Clever pen pictures showing unmistakably that one was expected to carry plates from dining room to serving room, that another was to unpack and serve the ice, etc., made each guest know that he was to earn his food in the old Biblical way — by the sweat of his brow.

Seated about the board were Mrs. McMullen, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilson, Mrs. Hanshue, Mrs. Beckwith, Miss Toles, Miss Lintz, Miss Lattimer, Mr. Ridgley and M. I. Powers.

Dinner on Tuesday

Last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. DeRyder had at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Grimmell, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Stevenson, Rev. Gillies and Miss Minnie Lintz.

Shakespeare Club

Monday night fourteen members assembled in the Pollock home to hear Miss Rosemary Rienhold's splendid presentation of American folk lore.

Series of Cards

Mrs. Lewis Benedict has been a most delightful hostess this week to a number of guests enjoying cards both five hundred and bridge. The very attractive home on North Leoux street seemed unusually hospitable on the afternoon of Monday, and Thursday, while tomorrow Mrs. Benedict will again entertain a coterie of friends. The very appetizing refreshments but added to the enjoyment of each occasion as the following guests attest: Mesdames W. H. Conley, Schmidt, E. H. Baker, Lee Doyle, Coffin, Weidner, Richmond, DeRyder, R. E. Taylor, Stevenson, Joe Francis, O'Farrell, Doe, Grimmell, H. C. Metz, Weatherford, McMillan, John Francis, Colin Campbell, L. R. Phoenix Visitor in Flagstaff

Mrs. Helen Baxter has been a guest for several days at the Isham home. Last Thursday evening Mrs. Isham entertained the Girls Friendly society in compliment to her guest and a most enjoyable evening was spent, a portion of which Mrs. Baxter used to tell of the inception and progress of the Girls Friendly organization.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. G. W. Becker entertained in Miss Baxter's honor. The following were guests: Mesdames Mills, Benedict, Nelson, DeRyder, Embach, Isham, Noble, Roome, Lusk, Brown and Stevenson.

NORMAL SCHOOL NOTES

President McMullen returned Wednesday from a trip to Snowflake. He spoke at the Snowflake academy on Monday evening and at the chapel exercises on Tuesday morning. The principal of the Snowflake academy, Silas L. Fish, is an alumnus of the Normal and most of the teachers are either graduates or have received training at the Normal. Miss Richards, Miss Rogers and Miss Flake, who are teaching at Snowflake, expect to return to the Normal when the work there is over in the spring.

New students are continuing at the Normal. Miss Moran of Deming, N. M., and Joseph Delavigne are two new registrants. The continued increase in enrollment shows that the Normal is popular not only in Arizona, but in a number of other states as well.

President McMullen goes to Humboldt and Mayer today or to-morrow. He goes to Phoenix on Monday and Tuesday to attend the state board meeting. At this meeting the board will decide on a standard geography text book for the state. The text chosen will be adopted for us in this state.

On Thursday the Normal boys basketball team played Holbrook high in Flagstaff. The Normal won with a score of 46 to 24. Holbrook had beaten most of the other schools in the northern part of the state so that it looks pretty good for the Normal. The game was fast and hard. Holbrook displayed the better skill in shooting baskets, seldom missing a shot. They were not quite fast enough though to get many shots.

The Prescott boys and girls basketball teams were scheduled to play the Normal tomorrow, but on account of some conflicts in their schedule Prescott cancelled the games. Instead Williams will play the Normal here tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Normal girls team played last Friday and Saturday at Holbrook and Winslow respectively, winning both games. At Holbrook the score was 28 to 2, at Winslow 26 to 3, in favor of the Normal. The girls season is over half over and they haven't lost a game in the northern part of the state. Come on, Flagstaff, we're going to win the championship again.

Earl H. Hipple's concert company gave a real snappy entertainment in the auditorium last Monday. An unusually large audience was present which indicates that Flagstaff people show an appreciation of good classical entertainments. The program was filled at frequent intervals with popular pieces that received the applause of all.

The Normal's orchestra is still increasing in the number of instruments and also in quality. Mr. Ridgley sure started something in the school. Musical instruments of all variety are found in all the rooms at the boys dormitory. At first the plunks, squeaks and toots were so constant around the dormitory that Mr. Ridgley's finely trained musical ear was set in a state of unmercifully distasteful vibration. Some of the boys, partly through sympathy for "C Ver-ry," and largely for their own nerve protection, passed a ruling that all amateur musicians practice their instruments in the bath room or be tubbed for each offense. After several tubbings on the part of some and an advancement of others in the class of professionalism, Mr. Ridgley is again his natural self.

SCHOOL NOTES

On Saturday, the boys' basketball team went to Winslow and played the quintet of the high school at that place. Although the Flagstaff boys put up an excellent fight, they were defeated by a heavier team, with a score of 46 to 16. Though the Winslow boys ran up quite a score, in the second half, not a member of the Emerson squad diminished his efforts to win. The game was a very fast one, and much more exciting than the score would indicate.

The line-up:
Flagstaff Winslow:
Yost C Williams
Frey RG Moore
Michelbach LG Shields
McCormick LF Schaar
Longley RF Sandoval

Henry Lester entered the game during the second half and played guard. Vincent Curtis accompanied the team as substitute. As left guard, Longley did some hard playing, while Yost threw some very difficult baskets. The other members of the team are also to be congratulated upon their consistent work.

"FIRST LOVE"

"First Love" comes to some of us like the measles — a fever, a chill, and then it's all over. But to Katherine O'Donnell it came like a great tidal wave which swept her from young girlhood into womanhood, overwhelmed mother love, home ties, friendship's warnings, and dashed her upon the shores of tragedy.

"First Love" is the focusing on the screen of a young girl's soul. No father, no mother, or boy or girl can afford to miss it. It will stand like a white milestone in your memory!

A picture for the whole family, clean, realistic, gripping, rather than sensational.
